

Module Topic Code:	KM-01-KT01
Module Title:	Theories and principles of relevant legislation, regulations, codes and by-laws
NQF Level:	4
Module Weighting:	30%
Total marks:	52

Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
1	NAME and EXPLAIN the Eight (8) types of licence categories as per the National Road Traffic Act (NRTA)	16
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
2	EXPLAIN which category vehicles a Professional Driving Permit (PDP) applies to and why this is necessary within South Africa.	5
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
3	NAME and EXPLAIN at least 2 different codes of good practice that a driver in the transport industry is required to abide by.	4
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
4	EXPLAIN the purpose of the Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) Act.	2
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
5	IDENTIFY and EXPLAIN the different standards and specifications regulating the crane environment	4
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation

6	EXPLAIN what is meant by the term “Driven Machine Regulations” in relation to the crane operating environment	2
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
7	IDENTIFY and DISCUSS the impact of not adhering to the National code of Practice when operating cranes	2
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
8	EXPLAIN the impact of AARTO on the road traffic industry	5
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
9	DESCRIBE and EXPLAIN at least 3 implications of SHERQ for a Transport Clerk and a Truck Driver.	12
Learner Response

Module Topic Code:	KM-01-KT02
Module Title:	Concepts, theories and principles of first aid
NQF Level:	4
Module Weighting:	10%
Total marks:	45

Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
10	NAME at least 3 types of hazards that are commonly faced by the transport industry and EXPLAIN the impact that each hazard has on the industry.	6
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation

Signature

11	DISCUSS how a potential hazard around an injured person can be identified and EXPLAIN the reasons why you would need to identify potential hazards	10
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
12	NAME and EXPLAIN the four main types of vital signs that are used in assessing an injured person.	8
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
13	When attending to an injured person EXPLAIN HOW and WHY you would reassure and calm them	2
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
14	TRUE or FALSE When a person is injured, it is fine to move them before qualified medical personnel arrive.	1
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
15	EXPLAIN the importance of having a first aid box and emergency services contact details when dealing with an injury on duty.	2
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation
16	DISCUSS the key principles for the following first aid procedures: a. Mouth-to-mouth resuscitation b. Treating bleeding wounds c. Checking wounds for foreign objects d. Treating an injured person for shock e. Dealing with infectious diseases	10
Learner Response
Question No.	Question	Mark Allocation

17	When dealing with an injury that includes serious bleeding there is a range of considerations which must be made. EXPLAIN how you would consider the following: a. What are the most important issues to consider and address first? b. What will the most appropriate method be to deal with the situation? c. What are the correct procedures to follow to control the bleeding?	6
Learner Response

